

Field Safety Week: March 21 - 27, 2018

Full day courses - Full day curriculum for researchers working in specific areas needing specific, relevant training. Cost covered through UAF Research areas. Advance sign-up required, space limited. Enroll online, mydraw.uaf.edu or call Brandon Worthington @ 907-474-6306

March 21 - Field Safety 101 - Outdoor Adventures instructing

Seven hour course designed to give students an introduction to the concepts and techniques of being comfortable and safe in the backcountry. 16 spaces.

Where: Murie #301

When: 9am - 4pm

March 22 - Glacier Travel & Crevasse Rescue- Outdoor Adventures instructing

Seven hour introduction to the concepts and techniques of safely traveling on a glacier. 9 spaces.

Where: Outdoor Adventures office @ SRC

When: 9am - 4pm

March 23 - Death, Taxes & Risk - Inevitable - UAF Risk Management Instructing

Know your UAF policies and procedures. Did you know the Chancellor needs to approve you having a gun in the field? 18 spaces.

Where: Murie #103

When: 2-5pm

March 26 and 27 - Wilderness First Aid - Deb Ajango Instructing

Certification through American Health and Safety Institute. Does not include CPR/AED. 18 spaces.

Where: Murie #301

When: 8am - 5pm each day

March 28 - ATV & Snow Machine Safety - Outdoor Adventures instructing

Know before you go; Operation, field maintenance, safety and, common issues. 12 spaces

Where: Student Recreation Center & Facilities, bay w10

When: 9am - 4pm

Safety Lunch! - 2 hr topic specific session for field researchers: Open lectures, no advance sign-up required. Sessions are Wednesdays, 2:30pm - 4:30pm

March 21 - Avalanche safety - Murie #107

March 28 - Winter Clothing systems and hypothermia - Murie #107

April 4 - Emergency communication devices - Murie #107

April 11 - Field navigation, maps and compass - Murie #107

April 18 - Field Safety 101 rapid fire - Murie #107

April 25 - Incident command - Murie #107

May 2 - Bear Safety - Murie #330